

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man, and this hard work and concern for one's fellow man has never been more evident than it is in Bonnie and Sid Bostic; and,

WHEREAS, Sid and Bonnie Bostic have lived in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, since 1980, when Sid became Senior Vice President and Manager of the Sioux Falls Downtown Office of Norwest and then became Branch President and Market Manager in 1985; and,

WHEREAS, Bonnie was active in PEO, was a substitute teacher in the Sioux Falls School District, had recently been appointed to the Board of Regents, and raised three children—Lisa, a graduate of the University of Minnesota and presently a counselor at a youth camp in upstate New York; Heidi, a senior in high school; and Brad, an eighth grader in junior high school; and,

WHEREAS, Sid has given much of his time to many civic and community activities, having served on the Board of Directors of the Sioux Empire United Way, served on the Board of Directors for the Industrial Development Foundation, served on the Board of Directors for the Sioux Falls Credit Bureau, and was a director of the YMCA, just to name a few; and,

WHEREAS, The Sioux Falls community and the State of South Dakota are sad to be losing such good friends, but happy that they are only going as far as our neighbor state of Nebraska, where Sid will be President of the Norwest Banks of Omaha; and,

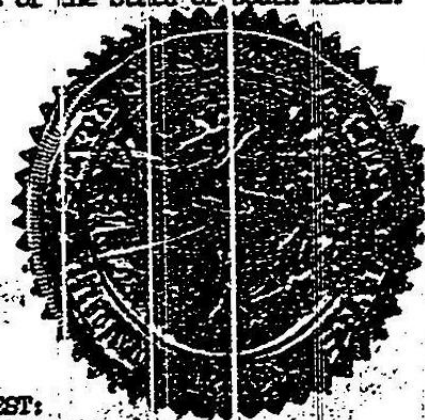

WHEREAS, Sid and Bonnie have given much to South Dakota during their lives here, and it is fitting that we honor them before they make what we know will be a temporary move; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Sid and Bonnie's years as citizens of South Dakota and wanting that to never change;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 27, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join with their many friends and relatives in wishing them a fond but sad farewell, and wish them luck in their new home and, hereby declare and proclaim that wherever their success may take them, they are forever and hereafter citizens of the State of South Dakota.

SID AND BONNIE BOSTIC DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Seventh Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Joyce Hartline
JOYCE HARTLINE, SECRETARY OF STATE